

Romeo and Juliet – Quotes from Act 2 Scenes 3 to 6

“Wisely and slow; they stumble that run fast.”

Act 2 Scene 3: Friar Laurence to Romeo, advising him not to rush. Romeo is keen to marry Juliet as soon as possible.

Act 2 Scene 4: Mercutio is pleased that Romeo is in good spirits and full of witty chat. He thinks his friend is himself once more.

*“Now art thou sociable, now
art thou Romeo.”*

“What says he of our marriage? What of that?”

Act 2 Scene 5: Juliet is impatient and wants the Nurse to tell her what arrangements Romeo has made for their wedding.

Act 2 Scene 6: Friar Laurence is worried that Romeo and Juliet are rushing into marriage. He fears that there may be unpleasant consequences.

“These violent delights have violent ends.”

